The application is made on the following grounds (please select as appropriate):

1. The farm debt is in default
AND
2. There is no prohibition certificate or mediation agreement currently in force in relation to the farm debt
AND
3. The farmer and creditor agreed to mediate and during that period the creditor participated in the mediation in good faith (s26, s34)
OR
4. The farmer declined to mediate (s20, s34) on a date that is within 10 working days of this application (s36(1))

Please attach evidence as appropriate:

- Request to mediate
- Refusal to mediate
  - The farmer failed to respond to a mediation request within 20 working days after receiving the request (s20(1)(a)), or such longer period as granted by MPI (s19)
  - The farmer indicated in writing to the creditor that they did not want to proceed with mediation (s20(1)(b))
  - The farmer indicated by another manner that they did not want to proceed to mediation (s 20(1)(c)). If you are relying on this ground you must attach a statutory declaration setting out facts which are considered to constitute a refusal to mediate including relevant dates.
- Copies of correspondence between parties
